RECEIVED

Dear Mr. Finlay:

This letter is in response to your correspondence dated November 16, 2009 to the Division of Banks (the "Division") on behalf of Ally Bank ("Ally Bank"), formerly known as GMAC Bank. Specifically, and in the context of qualifying to do business pursuant to the corporate statutes under the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth's Office of the Secretary of State, your letter requests permission to use the name "Ally Bank" for its Massachusetts operations.

As described in your submission to the Division, Ally Bank is a Utah state-chartered commercial bank with its principal office in Midvale, Utah. It proposes to commence business activities in the Commonwealth under its corporate name "Ally Bank." Its core business consists of offering a variety of FDIC-insured deposit accounts nationwide by mail, telephone, and Internet. It also extends and purchases residential mortgage loans, motor vehicle sales finance contracts, and motor vehicle leases. In addition to authority to engage in deposit taking and lending, the Utah Code, Utah Code § 7-3-10, has granted it, as a state-chartered bank, "all the rights, privileges, and powers necessary or incidental to carrying on the business of banking." You request that the Division issue a non-objection letter relative to the Bank conducting business under its corporate name, "Ally Bank", in the Commonwealth.

Massachusetts General Laws chapter 167, section 37 provides, in part, that a foreign corporation shall not solicit or receive deposits or transact any business whatsoever in the manner described in chapters 167, 167C through 167G, and 168 through 172 (the Commonwealth's banking statutes), unless authorized to do so under the laws of the Commonwealth. Section 37 also provides that such a corporation may not make use of any sign at the place where its business is transacted or use any written or printed materials having thereon any name or other words indicating that such place or office is a bank. Additionally, the statute prohibits a foreign corporation from transacting business under any name or title, which contains the word "bank". The purpose of this statute is to prohibit the practice of unauthorized banking in the Commonwealth and to prevent an entity from creating the impression that might lead the public to believe that its business is that of a bank.

William H. Finlay,
Associate Counsel
Page Two
November 30, 2009

It is the position of the Division that the prohibitions regarding the use of the word "bank" as set forth in chapter 167, section 37 are not applicable in this matter. The Division has no objection to the use of the name "Ally Bank" since it is a Utah-chartered bank insured by the FDIC. You should note, however, that the Office of the Secretary of State has final jurisdiction over the use of corporate names.

With respect to your further requests for permission to use the names "Ally Bank Corp.," "GMAC Bank," and "GMAC Automotive Bank," which names you characterize in your correspondence as "fictitious" or "assumed," please be advised that the Division has significant concerns about the use of such names with respect to the bank's Massachusetts operations. The Division firmly believes that the entity with which a consumer may be doing business should be completely clear to that consumer. Consumer confusion is likely to result if the same entity is seeking to use multiple or differing names. Accordingly, this letter stands only for the Division's non-objection to the use of the name "Ally Bank."

The conclusions reached in this letter are based solely on the facts presented. Fact patterns which vary from those presented may result in a different position statement by the Division.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Leonard, Jr.
Deputy Commissioner of Banks
and General Counsel
